

CORPORATE PROFILE

Dthera Sciences is a publicly-traded San Diego-based company working to create an innovative Digital Therapeutic to improve the Quality of Life and reduce anxiety in patients with Alzheimer's and Dementia. The Company was formed through the merger of Knowledge Machine International and EveryStory, Inc. and the acquisition of the SeniorsInTouch intellectual property portfolio. The Company's lead product, EveryStory, is a digital story-telling platform that is powered by propriety artificial intelligence technology and specifically targeting the Senior Living market. The EveryStory product is presently entering a clinical trial with a major public university to test its effectiveness as Reminiscence Therapy.
